SAINT MARK'S
EPISCOPAL CATHEDRAL

The Second Sunday after the Epiphany

January 15, 2017

8:00 AM

THE HOLY EUCHARIST

The Rt. Reverend Cabell Tennis, Presider and Preacher

Newcomers and visitors, the community of Saint Mark's welcomes you. We hope that you will feel at home in this place and in this liturgy. Mothers are most welcome to breastfeed their infants during the service.

Out of respect for the liturgy we are about to celebrate, please turn off all cell phones and audible devices. Please, no photography during the liturgy.

PRELUDE Andante sostenuto, from Symphonie Gothique — Charles-Marie Widor

THE GATHERING

All rise as able.

OPENING HYMN Christ, whose glory fills the skies — The Hymnal 1982 #7

OPENING ACCLAMATION

Presider Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Assembly And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

COLLECT FOR PURITY — BCP page 355

GLORIA — BCP page 356

Glory to God in the highest, and peace to his people on earth.
Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father, we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory.
Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer.
For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Collect of the Day

Presider The Lord be with you.
Assembly And also with you.
Presider Let us pray.

Almighty God, whose Son our Savior Jesus Christ is the light of the world: Grant that your people, illumined by your Word and Sacraments, may shine with the radiance of Christ's glory, that he may be known, worshipped, and obeyed to the ends of the earth; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

After each reading, the lector says: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people. All respond Thanks be to God.

First Reading Isaiah 49:1-7

Listen to me, O coastlands, pay attention, you peoples from far away! The Lord called me before I was born, while I was in my mother's womb he named me. He made my mouth like a sharp sword, in the shadow of his hand he hid me; he made me a polished arrow, in his quiver he hid me away. And he said to me, "You are my servant, Israel, in whom I will be glorified." But I said, "I have labored in vain, I have spent my strength for nothing and vanity; yet surely my cause is with the Lord, and my reward with my God." And now the Lord says, who formed me in the womb to be his servant, to bring Jacob back to him, and that Israel might be gathered to him, for I am honored in the sight of the Lord, and my God has become my strength-- he says, "It is too light a thing that you should be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob and to restore the survivors of Israel; I will give you as a light to the nations, that my salvation may reach to the end of the earth." Thus says the Lord, the Redeemer of Israel and his Holy One, to one deeply despised, abhorred by the nations, the slave of rulers, "Kings shall see and stand up, princes, and they shall prostrate themselves, because of the Lord, who is faithful, the Holy One of Israel, who has chosen you."

Psalm 40:1-12 (read in unison)

1 I waited patiently upon the Lord; *
he stooped to me and heard my cry.

2 He lifted me out of the desolate pit, out of the mire and clay; *
he set my feet upon a high cliff and made my footing sure.

3 He put a new song in my mouth, a song of praise to our God; *
many shall see, and stand in awe, and put their trust in the Lord.

4 Happy are they who trust in the Lord! *
they do not resort to evil spirits or turn to false gods.

5 Great things are they that you have done, O Lord my God!
how great your wonders and your plans for us! *
there is none who can be compared with you.

6 Oh, that I could make them known and tell them! *
but they are more than I can count.

7 In sacrifice and offering you take no pleasure *
(you have given me ears to hear you);

8 Burnt-offering and sin-offering you have not required, *
and so I said, "Behold, I come.

9 In the roll of the book it is written concerning me: *
'I love to do your will, O my God; your law is deep in my heart.'"

10 I proclaimed righteousness in the great congregation; *
behold, I did not restrain my lips; and that, O Lord, you know.

11 Your righteousness have I not hidden in my heart;
I have spoken of your faithfulness and your deliverance; *
I have not concealed your love and faithfulness from the great congregation.

12 You are the Lord; do not withhold your compassion from me; *
let your love and your faithfulness keep me safe for ever,

Second Reading 1 Corinthians 1:1-9

Paul, called to be an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and our brother Sosthenes, To the church of God that is in Corinth, to those who are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, together with all those who in every place call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, both their Lord and ours: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. I give thanks to my God always for you because of the grace of God that has been given you in Christ Jesus, for in every way you have been enriched in him, in speech and knowledge of every kind-- just as the testimony of Christ has been strengthened among you-- so that you are not lacking in any spiritual gift as you wait for the revealing of our Lord Jesus Christ. He will also strengthen you to the end, so that you may be blameless on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. God is faithful; by him you were called into the fellowship of his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Holy Gospel John 1:29-42

Presider The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.
Assembly Glory to you, Lord Christ.

John saw Jesus coming toward him and declared, "Here is the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world! This is he of whom I said, 'After me comes a man who ranks ahead of me because he was before me.' I myself did not know him; but I came baptizing with water for this reason, that he might be revealed to Israel." And John testified, "I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it remained on him. I myself did not know him, but the one who sent me to baptize with water said to me, 'He on whom you see the Spirit descend and remain is the one who baptizes with the Holy Spirit.' And I myself have seen and have testified that this is the Son of God." The next day John again was standing with two of his disciples, and as he watched Jesus walk by, he exclaimed, "Look, here is the Lamb of God!" The two disciples heard him say this, and they followed Jesus. When Jesus turned and saw them following, he said to them, "What are you looking for?" They said to him, "Rabbi" (which translated means Teacher), "where are you staying?" He said to them, "Come and see." They came and saw where he was staying, and they remained with him that day. It was about four o'clock in the afternoon. One of the two who heard John speak and followed him was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother. He first found his brother Simon and said to him, "We have found the Messiah" (which is translated Anointed). He brought Simon to Jesus, who looked at him and said, "You are Simon son of John. You are to be called Cephas" (which is translated Peter).

Presider The Gospel of the Lord.
Assembly Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Sermon Bishop Tennis

Nicene Creed BCP page 358

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father;through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became truly human.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father,who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the Assembly

Intercessor Lord, in your mercy,
Assembly hear our Prayer.

The presider concludes the prayers with a collect. All respond Amen.

Confession

Presider Most merciful God,
All we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done, and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The presider pronounces God's forgiveness of our sins. All respond Amen.

The Peace

THE LITURGY OF THE TABLE

Offertory

The Great Thanksgiving (Eucharistic Prayer B) BCP page 367

Rice wafers are available for those who do not eat wheat. Simply ask for one at the time of communion.

All rise as able.

Prayer after Communion

Assembly Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.
Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Blessing

The presider asks God's blessing on the assembly; all respond Amen.

Closing Hymn How wondrous and great thy works The Hymnal 1982 #533

Dismissal

The presider dismisses the assembly. All respond Thanks be to God.

SUNDAYS & BEYOND

The Saint Mark's Cathedral weekly newsletter

THE SECOND SUNDAY AFTER THE EPIPHANY, JANUARY 15, 2017

Welcome to The Rt. Rev. Cabell Tennis

We welcome The Rt. Rev. Cabell Tennis to the pulpit this morning. Bishop Tennis (known to many here as Cabby) was the 4th Dean of St. Mark's Cathedral in the 1970s and 1980s before being elected as Bishop of Delaware. In his retirement, Cabby and his wife Hyde returned to Seattle and St. Mark's. Bishop Tennis presides from time to time at worship, provides pastoral care at the request of the Dean, and remains active in justice programs at Saint Mark's and in the greater Seattle community.

"I Have a Dream" A Community Listening

TODAY, 10:10 AM, BLOEDEL HALL

Come celebrate the life of Martin Luther King Jr. by listening to his iconic "I Have a Dream" speech. Share with others the words you find most poignant and how they might be speaking to you.

Pledge offering envelopes available today

If you requested 2017 offering envelopes, they're available to pick up in the back of the nave today. Help save the cathedral on postage!

Come Hear the Voices of the Women of Mary's Place

TODAY, 1 P.M., LEFFLER LIVING ROOM

Mary's Place, a Seattle organization providing shelter and services to women and families experiencing homelessness, has recently published "Original Voices: Homeless and Formerly Homeless Women's Writings," an edited collection presenting the compelling voices of almost 50 women who have experienced homelessness. Join us in Leffler Living Room at 1 p.m., Sunday January 15, for a presentation and reading by some of the contributors to the volume. Coffee and refreshments will be served. Sponsored by the Cathedral Shop.

Radcliffe Choral Society Concert

TODAY, 12:30 PM, CATHEDRAL NAVE

The Radcliffe Choral Society is thrilled to kick off its Tenth Anniversary Pacific Northwest Tour with a free performance at St. Mark's Cathedral on Sunday, January 15, 2017, 12:30-1 p.m.. The Radcliffe Choral Society, founded in 1899, is a treble choral ensemble at Harvard University, currently under the direction of Dr. Andrew Clark. The ensemble aims to foster the appreciation and enjoyment of women's choral music through the commission of new works for women's voices, high-caliber performances, and domestic and international travel, striving to honor its history and further its legacy. We hope you will join us for our first performance on tour!

Renewing Our Covenant: A Statement of Commitment and Action

Special Parish Forum facilitated by Dean Thomason

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 18, 7-8:15PM, BLOEDEL HALL

The Vestry of Saint Mark's Cathedral Parish has adopted a position statement grounded in our baptismal covenant, calling us to prayer, holy listening, and advocacy for justice in these momentous times. The statement can be reviewed at saintmarks.org. We will continue the conversation begun last week, but all are welcome to join this as we engage the work of translating the statement into real action. Where will you devote your energy in this holy work? What gifts do you bring to the community's efforts as we turn into this new era for Saint Mark's? For more info, email Dean Thomason at sthomason@saintmarks.org. An optional light dinner is served in Bloedel Hall 6-6:30 p.m. each Wednesday as part of Cathedral Commons.

Cathedral Prayer List

To add a name to our prayer list, contact 206·323·0300 ×314 or Joniepr@msn.com. Prayer requests are listed in Sundays & Beyond for four weeks, and, if needed, they are listed in the monthly Ongoing List, which is found in the Narthex.

The Flowers in Thomsen Chapel today are given by Margaret Ziviski to the glory of God and in loving memory of Anna, Louisa, Elsie, Hannah, and Lila.

2017 Annual Parish Meeting and festive meal

SUNDAY, JANUARY 29, 12:30, BLOEDEL HALL

You're invited to join a festive parish meal and the 2017 Annual Meeting. The meeting will include an election of parish Vestry members and Delegates/Alternates to the Diocesan Convention. You must be present to vote–there is no provision for absentee ballots. We'll also hear ministry reports, and the 2017 budget. This is a wonderful opportunity to celebrate our vibrant parish while visiting with old friends and getting to know new members. Please bring something to share at the lunch, which will be fully potluck. We suggest the following guidelines: Potluck items should feed at least 8-10 people. To ensure balanced options:

A-I last names, please bring a main course
J-R last names, please bring a side or salad
S-Z last names, please bring a dessert

Vestry nominations

On Sunday, January 22, the eight candidates for Vestry will be introduced at all three morning services. Short statements from each candidate are available in the Nominations Brochure available at the back of the nave. Read what they have to say, then have good questions for them during coffee hour after both the 9 and 11 a.m service. Four of the eight will be elected at the Annual Meeting on Sunday, January 29, but all eight are highly qualified and will serve the Saint Mark's Community with prayer, integrity and love.

Mideast Focus Film Series: Who Counts?

This year's Mideast Focus Ministry Film Series raises the question "Who Counts?" In this time of doubt about who does count, we consider: Who counts when it comes to the news? In a Refugee Camp? In West Bank Settlements? Who counts among marginalized groups in America? Can we create a world where everyone Counts? Join us for the series "kick-off" forum on Sunday, January 22, 2017: 10:10 a.m. in Bloedel Hall. Parishioner Ruth McRee will lead a discussion titled "On Seeing and Not-Seeing in the Holy Land", exploring her experiences of travel in Palestine in January 2016. An opening reception will be held on January 25 at 6:15 p.m. in Skinner Hall, followed by the first film screening at 7 p.m., The Occupation of the American Mind. Film discussion will be facilitated by Joel Connelly, a journalist at the Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

Art installation by artist Josh Faught coming to Saint Mark's

A special art installation is coming to the Cathedral Nave at Saint Mark's. The patrons of Western Bridge, William and Ruth True, have commissioned a unique work from acclaimed textile artist Josh Faught. The work, titled Sanctuary, will be on display in the southeast corner of the Nave beginning January 19. All are welcome to an opening reception on Tuesday, January 31 from 6 to 9 p.m., with remarks at 7 p.m. If you plan to attend, RSVP to Erik Donner, edonner@saintmarks.org, by January 20.

Building Community and the One Parish, One Prisoner Initiative with Chris Hoke

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 1, 7 PM, BLOEDEL HALL

In 2005, Chris Hoke came to read the Bible "with the damned" alongside Bob Ekblad in the Skagit County Jail. He did not expect to be embraced and dubbed "pastor" by a growing community of Chicano gang members. As founder of Tierra Nueva's Gang Initiative, his passion now is to help disciple former gang members and men out of prison to step into the calling many of them feel like Saul of Tarsus—to reach a new generation of hurting youth. His book, Wanted, chronicles his journey. Chris will share stories of building community with those on the margins in Skagit County, his work with Tierra Nueva, tierra-nueva.org, and opportunities for Saint Mark's to get involved in the One Parish, One Prisoner Initiative. We recommend you read Chris' book prior to the event, but it's not required. The follow-up article (linked at saintmarks.org/wednesdays) provides additional information about his ministry.

Inquirer's Class Series

SUNDAYS, FEB. 26-APR. 2, 12:30 P.M., BLOEDEL HALL

Saint Mark's next Inquirer's Class series starts in February. This series is an opportunity to 'inquire' about the Episcopal Church. The instruction includes information concerning beliefs, history, worship, sacraments, and practices of the Episcopal Church, providing preparation for those desiring to be baptized at the Easter Vigil or received or confirmed into the Episcopal Church on Cathedral Day in the spring. All are welcome! A light lunch is served and childcare is available upon advance request. For more information or to sign up contact Canon Nancee Martin, nmartin@saintmarks.org.

The Wisdom School: Embracing the Enneagram as a Map for Spiritual Unfolding

FRIDAY, MARCH 10, 7-9 P.M. & SATURDAY MARCH 11, 9 A.M.-3 P.M., BLOEDEL HALL

The inner observer knows the difference between when we are thinking, feeling and acting out of patterned responses and when we are living in grounded presence. But we become discouraged when we find ourselves reacting in our same old patterned ways in love, work and family life. The Enneagram provides a map for understanding the dynamics of the human condition and the barriers to living our spiritual freedom. This narrative tradition class is introductory in nature, relying on group participation in the panel method and introducing practices for working with the Enneagram in daily life. Fee is $50 which includes refreshments and Saturday lunch. A book purchase (available at the Cathedral Shop) and pre-reading are required. Read more and register at saintmarks.org/wisdomschool.

What Does it Take on Any Given Sunday?

On any given Sunday, it takes a whole host of hosts to run the cathedral. Besides choirs and worship leaders, the 9 and 11 a.m. services together require 10 ushers, 2 greeters and 2 hosts at the Welcome Table. All these jobs are easy to do and require only brief orientation and limited time commitment. They also are fun and offer abundant opportunities to meet other members and visitors at Saint Mark's. To love and serve the Lord is sometimes just this simple. Be a Saint Mark's Sunday host. For more information, please contact Deacon Earl Grout at egrout@saintmarks.org.
