

The Arts

at Saint Mark's

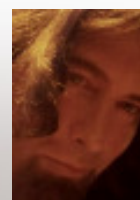

2011 -2012 CONCERT SEASON

Saint Mark's Episcopal Cathedral
1245 Tenth Avenue East, Seattle, WA 98102
(206)323-0300 saintmarks.org

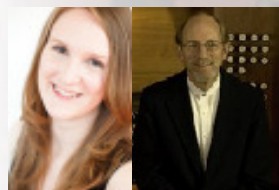

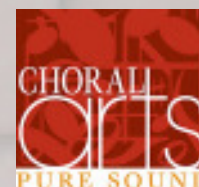

The Arts

at Saint Mark's
2011-2012 season

September 30 at 7:30 - Flentrop concert
Alan de Puy, Saint Mark's Assistant Organist, in his debut recital at Saint Mark's.

October 7 at 7:00 - Saint Mark's Artist-in-Residence Choral Arts perform Vaughan Williams's magnificent Mass in G Minor for double chorus.

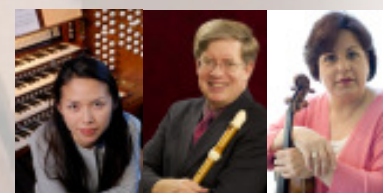

October 23 at 2:00 - Organ Plus concert in Thomsen Chapel
Saint Mark's Canon Musician J. Melvin Butler, organ joined by soprano Rebekah Gilmore, Assistant Director of Saint Mark's Choir School

November 13 at 2:00 - Chamber music concert:
Saint Mark's Associate Musician Brian Fairbanks, flute, with Tim Anderson, piano

November 27 at 7:00
The glorious annual O Antiphon Service of Advent Lessons and Carols
The Cathedral and Compline Choirs

January 22 at 2:00 - Organ Plus Concert in Thomsen Chapel
Jieun Kim Newland, organ, Charles Coldwell, recorder, and Cecilia Archuleta, violin
Trio sonatas by J. S. Bach

February 17 at 7:30 - Cathedral Trio concert in Thomsen Chapel:
Brian Fairbanks, flute, Joyce Ramée, viola, and Naomi Kato, harp

March 9 at 7:30 - Flentrop concert
Christophe Mantoux, Internationally acclaimed concert organist from Paris, France

March 14 at 7:30 p.m. - Choral Arts sings
John Muehleisen's Pietá.

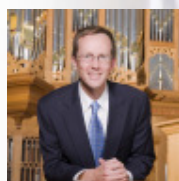

March 25 at 2:00 p.m. - Organ Plus concert in Thomsen Chapel Roger Sherman, Saint Mark's Associate Organist in concert with Steve Alboucq, trumpet

Special Event

April 21 at 7:30 p.m. The Arts at Saint Mark's is proud to host the world famous Choir of Men and Boys from Canterbury Cathedral, England; David Flood, director. Tickets are $25. Advanced purchase suggested.

May 4 at 7:30 p.m. - Flentrop concert: The annual All-Bach concert
Dr. Michael Kleinschmidt is Canon Organist/Choirmaster of Trinity Cathedral, Portland

May 11 at 7:30 p.m. - Choral Arts celebrates the wonders of Nature. They are pleased to welcome the Northwest Girlchoir to share the stage for this performance.

Choral Masses, 2011-2012

11:00 Sunday mornings sung by Saint Mark's Cathedral Choir

- October 16 Mary Mass by John Karl Hirten
- October 30 Missa Bell' Amfitrit' altera by Orlando di Lasso
- January 22 Missa de la batalla escoutez by Francisco Guerrero
- February 5 Mass for Three Voices by William Byrd
- March 18 German Mass by Franz Schubert
- June 3 A Simple Missa Brevis by Peter Hallock

The 2011 - 2012 concert series promises to be an exceptional season with many wonderful resident and guest artists. Outstanding music and art is an integral part of the cathedral's life, continuing the long standing tradition of excellence established by Cathedral Associates.

Blessed by the acoustical resonance of the Nave, the intimate clarity of Thomsen Chapel, and the incomparable Flentrop and Fritts organs, Saint Mark's continues to offer unparalleled musical performances.

Saint Mark's Cathedral depends on the generosity of our members and friends to help support our many programs and ministries. We welcome your interest and would be pleased to discuss ways in which you might be a partner in our work by offering an unrestricted gift or sponsoring a concert or event.

If you would like to receive information on upcoming events please send an email to concerts@saintmarks.org.

Advance passes may be obtained in person from the Cathedral Shop, or reserved by phone: The Cathedral Shop, 1245 10th Ave. East, 206-323-1040, or available at the door on the night of the performance for a suggested donation of $18/12. Choral Arts tickets are available online at choral-arts.org. Admission to the Organ Plus concerts is by suggested donation of $10. Since seating is limited in Thomsen Chapel, a reserved pass may be purchased in advance from the Cathedral Shop.

*All events are subject to change.
Please check saintmarks.org for further information.*

J. Melvin Butler, Canon Musician
Brian Fairbanks, Associate Musician
Canon Alan K. De Puy, Assistant Organist saintmarks.org