The Saint Mark's Cathedral weekly newsletter

THE FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER THE EPIPHANY ♦ FEBRUARY 4, 2018

Sunday Forum today—On this Ground We Stand: Sanctuary and Public Witness for Such a Time as This

TODAY, 10:10 A.M., BLOEDEL HALL

Acts of accompaniment and solidarity, sanctuary and immigrant rights, are all part of the Christian tradition. As people of faith, public witness rooted in our relationships in the wider community can help lead us toward the vision of the Beloved Community. Join Michael Ramos, Executive Director of The Church Council of Greater Seattle, as we explore how we are called at “such a time as this.”

Choral Evensong for the Feast of the Presentation of Christ in the Temple

TODAY AT 4:30 PM, CATHEDRAL NAVE

Does the Super Bowl leave you feeling unfulfilled? Come to Evensong in the Cathedral instead. On this occasion, Saint Mark's Evensong Choir will offer prayers and praises set to music of a particularly luminous, contemplative quality by Gabriel Jackson, Johannes Eccard, and Olaf Christensen. All is in celebration of that holy encounter between the child, Jesus, and the aged priest, Simeon, in which God's promises of the past and for the future are united.

A Festive Evensong Celebration of Gratitude for All Who Have Supported the Capital Campaign

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 11, CATHEDRAL NAVE

6 p.m. Special Evensong of Thanksgiving; 7 p.m. Festive Dessert Reception
A joyful celebration of the culmination of the Living Stones Capital Campaign and completion of Cathedral restoration. Featuring awe-inspiring music from the Saint Mark's Evensong Choir and the Cathedral Choir and a sumptuous dessert reception. All are invited to an event eagerly anticipated since 1928. Admission is free. (Please note: The 7 p.m. Contemplative Eucharist is cancelled that evening.)

Saint Mark's Shrove Tuesday Pancake Supper

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 6 P.M., CATHEDRAL NAVE

Laissez les bons temps rouler! Join in a celebration to end the season of Epiphany and begin the season of Lent. We'll eat pancakes, sausage, and gumbo, and then "bury our Alleluias" and burn palms for Ash Wednesday. Come on out, bring a friend, and celebrate with us!

Ash Wednesday Services

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 14

The Holy Eucharist with Imposition of Ashes
7 a.m. Thomsen Chapel
12 noon Cathedral Nave
7 p.m. Cathedral Nave

Newcomers Coffee with Clergy

TODAY, AFTER 9 & 11 A.M.

SERVICES, LEFFLER LIVING ROOM

Every month Saint Mark's hosts a conversation with those new to the cathedral after both the 9 a.m. and 11 a.m. services to help us get to know one another, share our stories, and introduce you to Saint Mark's and the Episcopal Church. Join us!

Table to Table

TODAY, 10:10 A.M., ST. NICHOLAS BUILDING

We are preparing for the transition from Ordinary Time to Lent by packing a bag of items that represent each station of the cross. Children and their families will take these items home, and open them during Lent to remember Jesus's journey to the cross, and God's presence with us in tangible, concrete ways. If you are interested in making a bag or getting the adapted stations of the cross handout, contact Kelly at kmoody@saintmarks.org.

Youth Group

TODAY, 5:15 PM, YOUTH ROOM

Youth Group Game Night! Come join us for some UNO, Ping-Pong, and Exploding Kittens. Bring $5 for pizza and your favorite game. And for those interested, the Super Bowl will be on the big screen.

Bring your palms to church

The ashes for Ash Wednesday's worship services are made by burning the palms from the previous year's Palm Sunday, a kind of “coming full circle.” Baskets are in the Nave and in Thomsen Chapel for palms; please bring and contribute any palms you have. The palms will be burned on Shrove Tuesday (February 13) at the community celebration.

Community dinner, 6-6:30 p.m. (Adults $7, Children $5, Max Family $20).

The Storytelling as Social Conscience Series ended early, so there will not be a session this Wednesday, February 7. We will still serve community supper that evening, so please join us for a delicious homemade meal and fellowship! If you wish to view video or resources from the Storytelling series, you can find them at saintmarks.org/resources.

Stations of the Cross—Sculptural Reliefs by Virginia Maksymowicz

LENT 2018 (FEB. 14-MARCH 30), EVENT IS FREE

Opening Reception - SUNDAY FEB. 18 AT 2:30 P.M., CATHEDRAL NAVE

From Ash Wednesday through Good Friday, Saint Mark's will exhibit Virginia Maksymowicz's Stations of the Cross, cast sculptural reliefs in a tradition of religious imagery that dates back to the 13th century. Maksymowicz worked with a variety of models, culled from a wide range of ages and ethnicities. She explains, "I wanted the narrative of Christ's passion and death to be represented in a way that is tensioned between the "specific" and the "universal." Audio guides will make them accessible to visually impaired people as well. Audio and text guides embedded in a mobile app offer visitors several meditations to accompany their experience. For more information, or to participate in group experiences with the stations, contact Canon Daugherty, jkdaugherty@saintmarks.org, or Vi Lynk, vi-lynk@mac.com. Read more at saintmarks.org/visualarts.

Foot Care Supply Drive

Saint Mark's will collect donations during the month of February to be distributed to those experiencing homelessness at the foot care station of United Way's Community Resource Exchange, Century Link Event Center on March 20. Items needed: men's and women's socks, travel-sized lotion, foot powder, toenail clippers. Are you interested in footwashing or other jobs at the event? Email Emily Austin for more info, emily.austinbook@gmail.com.

Book Club: The Hate Crimes & Hate Speech De-escalation Ministry

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 17, 12-2 P.M.

Join us in reading New York Times best-selling author Chris Hayes' book, A Colony in a Nation. Hayes contends our country has fractured in two: the Colony and the Nation. In the Nation, we venerate the law. In the Colony, we obsess over order, fear trumps civil rights, and aggressive policing resembles occupation. Discussion on the book will be facilitated by Amanda Clark and held at the cozy home of Bob Chapman; light snacks and refreshments will be provided. For RSVP, directions and more information, contact Amanda at amanda_bleu@hotmail.com.

Listening for the Holy Spirit

TUESDAY, FEB. 6, 7 P.M., CATHEDRAL HOUSE 210

This holy listening group is saturated with silences and reflection on one's sharing and holding space for the compassionate stream of God's love. All are welcome. Meet in the Nave by the north west corner to gain access to the meeting room. If arriving late, or for more information, contact Phillip Lienau at silbern@icloud.com or at 206.612.1136.

Saint Mark's Cathedral Legacy Society Lunch

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 18, DIOCESAN HOUSE, 1-3 P.M.

Have you included Saint Mark's Cathedral in your end of life/estate plans? Please join us for lunch and a special program to honor your contributions to this cathedral. Speakers will be Dean Steve Thomason and Alan Davidson, who will share highlights from his recent study of Saint Mark's history. To RSVP, contact Sandy Piscitello, sandra.piscitello@gmail.com, 206 329-6221.

Becoming an Atheist about the God of Rewards and Punishments

FRIDAY FEB. 23, 6:30-8:30 P.M. & SATURDAY

FEB. 24, 9 A.M.-3 P.M. BLOEDEL HALL

Saint Mark's will welcome The Rev. Ed Bacon to offer this outstanding workshop. Rev. Bacon is one of the great visionary leaders and teachers of our time. He was invited by Oprah as a speaker on transformative love in her Soul Series and frequently spoke on her radio show. He counts the likes of Merton and Martin Luther King Jr. as mentors, and, Rohr, Bourgeault and Delio as friends and colleagues in the work of unifying peace and wholeness, which is the focus of this workshop for people of faith. Becoming an Atheist about the God of Rewards and Punishments is about articulating a new narrative, moving from transactional notions of God into a liberating life of contemplation and action. Fee: $50 includes Saturday breakfast and lunch. Register at saintmarks.org/wisdomschool.

Inquirer's and Confirmation Class

SUNDAYS, FEBRUARY 25 - MARCH 18, 12:30-2 P.M.,

BLOEDEL HALL (Light lunch included)

All are welcome to come to these classes, which cover the basics of the Christian faith through the Episcopal/Anglican lens. Following these classes, many decide they want to become an Episcopalian through confirmation or reception into the church. Some who attend are experiencing a revival of the soul and may desire to reaffirm their baptismal vows. Interested? Contact The Rev. Cristi Chapman, cchapman@saintmarks.org.

Saint Mark's Evensong Choir says Thank You for supporting the Hymnathon

We crossed the finish line, singing Hymn 720, at 5:20 p.m. last Saturday—a record time! Thank you for your prayers, for singing, donating, cheering, listening, and for voting with dollars for your favorite hymn. The count is in: Hymn 370, "I bind unto myself today," came in third place. Hymn 400, "All creatures of our God and King," came in second. And Hymn 657, "Love divine, all loves excelling," is Saint Mark's favorite hymn of 2018!

Wisdom Remixed: Reclaiming the Spiritual Truth of Wisdom Teachings in the Bible

WEDNESDAYS, FEB. 28, MARCH 7, 14, & 21, 2018, 6:45-

8:15 P.M. Class is free. Optional dinner is served 6-6:30 p.m.

The seasons of our lives change. We read these ancient

CONSTRUCTION CORNER

The elevator is now operational, as are the power doors into Narthex (southernmost doors) and into the office suite (to be renamed the Hoerster Annex).

The stone work on external walls is nearly complete. Caulking requires dry weather so this will likely take a few more weeks. The trailer on the front lawn has been removed, and the lawn will be reseeded as weather permits. Landscaping will begin around the perimeter of the cathedral in the coming weeks. Hand rails for the east terrace (front patio) are in fabrication and will be installed this month. Asphalt repairs and restriping of the south lot will occur once all the construction workers have completed other aspects of the project.

For background information on the project, visit saintmarks.org/construction. Thanks to all whose generous donations have made this project possible. To give to the Living Stones Capital Campaign, visit saintmarks.org/livingstones, or contact Erik Donner at 206-323-0300 ext. 217 or edonner@saintmarks.org.

texts, trusting that they contain deep wisdom about God, about life, and the world in which we live. What does it mean to lament in our modern times? How do we find our way when spiritually disoriented? Can we rediscover God's justice as an essential thread in our spiritual journey? Drawing on the reflections of Walter Brueggemann and others, Dean Thomason, Rev. Daugherty and Rev. Ross will lead attendees in engaging these texts with special intention in our Lenten journey.

Saint Mark's seeks Seattle Service Corps Director

The Director of the Seattle Service Corps ("SSC") is a half-time position responsible for the development and leadership of the SSC. Seattle Service Corps internship program is a chance for young adults to explore their faith and discern their vocational call, while working for justice-driven causes and being a part of this faith community. The Director is involved in all aspects of recruiting members and non-profit partners; providing spiritual care and professional development to corps members; and administering the program. In addition, the Director serves as liaison to the Advisory Board and the Episcopal Service Corps. For full job description and how to apply, visit saintmarks.org/employment.

Lay Chaplains in Community Training

SATURDAY, MARCH 3, 10 A.M., LEFFLER LIVING ROOM

Interested in learning more about pastoral care or becoming a lay chaplain at Saint Mark's? Please join us! We will focus on the theology and basics of pastoral care and discuss how to approach common pastoral concerns (e.g. grief work, etc.). For more information and to RSVP, contact The Rev. Cristi Chapman, cchapman@saintmarks.org.
