THE THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER ♦ APRIL 15, 2018

Sunday Forum today: Practicing Resurrection

TODAY, 10:10 A.M., BLOEDEL HALL

What does the good news of Easter mean for how we go about our daily lives? What does resurrection look like in our personal relationships, work commitments, and sense of self? Canon Daugherty will be drawing on modern people's stories of faith (including our own!) to consider these questions and help us practice resurrection ourselves.

Organ Plus Concert: Wyatt Smith & Natalie Ham

SUNDAY, APRIL 22, 2 P.M.,

Presiding Bishop to visit Saint Mark's

Saint Mark's is pleased to welcome The Most Rev. Michael B. Curry, Presiding Bishop of the Episcopal Church, to the cathedral on Thursday, June 14. Bishop Curry will join us for a special service of Choral Evensong at 7 p.m. that day. A reception will follow in the Cathedral Nave. More details to come—stay tuned!

Seeking God: Save the dates and read the book!

Before Dean Thomason left on sabbatical, he encouraged the congregation to embark upon a study of Esther De Waal's Seeking God: The Way of St. Benedict. Please join the Rev. Canon Jennifer King Daugherty and Senior Warden Lynne Markova at a series of Sunday Forums at 10:10 a.m. on May 6, June 3, and July 8 to discuss and reflect on the ancient rhythms of Benedictine spirituality and the impact these rhythms have today on our individual and communal lives. Copies of the book are available for purchase in the Cathedral Shop. All are welcome whether you are reading the book or not; the leaders will summarize some of the themes for discussion. Questions? Contact Canon Jennifer, jkdaugherty@saintmarks.org, or Lynne Markova, lsmarkova@comcast.net.

Ministry Opportunity: Cathedral Office Volunteer

We have an opening for a front desk volunteer in the cathedral office on Fridays from 9 a.m.-4:30 p.m. This ministry provides the initial contact to many people who come to Saint Mark's. It primarily entails greeting visitors and answering the phone, and assisting with office projects as needed. Interested in joining this friendly and dedicated team? Contact Irene Beausoleil at 206-323-0300 ext. 227, or ibeausoleil@saintmarks.org.

The Cathedral Shop

Colorful rain ponchos are now available to purchase in The Cathedral Shop. Be prepared for rainy April showers!

Easter celebration of time and talent

During this Easter season, we celebrate your gifts of time and talent to all of Saint Mark's ministries and programs. Each week, we'll recognize a specific ministry area, giving thanks in our prayers and asking volunteers to stand and be recognized. April 8 – Worship and Liturgy; April 15 – Formation; April 22 – Community Life and Governance; April 29 – Justice and Reconciliation. If you volunteer in any of these ministry areas, please stand and be recognized. If you want to get involved in one of these ministry areas, please talk to one of those people standing up!

Saint Mark's welcomes new Sexton!

Saint Mark's recently welcomed a new addition to its facilities staff, Chris Koeppe! Chris and his wife, Teresa, have been regular worshippers at Saint Mark's for the last couple of years, often at the 8 a.m. service. Chris previously worked at Theo Chocolate, and also teaches TRX fitness classes at the University of Washington. Please join us in welcoming Chris!

Enneagram Small Discussion Groups

APRIL 16, 7 P.M. & APRIL 21, 11 A.M. Leffler Living Room
The Enneagram is a resource that lends itself to personal spiritual growth and understanding. As an outgrowth of the Enneagram workshops through the Wisdom School, we have formed two Enneagram Small Discussion Groups. Their focus is to lend mutual support, encouragement, and listening for those who want to integrate the Enneagram into their spiritual development and lives. If you are interested, please contact Robert Stevens, rstevens@bblaw.com.

Potluck/Meeting for Lowell Elementary Volunteers

TUESDAY, APRIL 17, 6 P.M., LEFFLER LIVING ROOM
Several Saint Mark's parishioners have been volunteering the last few months in various ways at our local public school, Lowell Elementary. We'll get together for a light potluck meal to share our experiences thus far, and talk about ways to better serve this school, which has over 100 students experiencing homelessness and has limited funding. We invite current volunteers, along with anyone interested in learning more about opportunities at Lowell.

Creating a Culture of Peace: Active Non-Violence Workshop

SATURDAY, APRIL 21, 9 A.M., BLOEDEL HALL
In these divisive times, it can be difficult to live out our Baptismal promises, yet Jesus has shown us nonviolent ways of living in community. This workshop introduces nonviolent practices through group exercises, stories, reflection and discussion. It provides strategies to engage others respectfully and constructively. Participants will feel more creative and empowered to respond without violence and improve skills for respectful engagement, instead of confrontation that polarizes and demonizes. Janet Chisholm, longtime nonviolence trainer and Episcopalian activist, will lead the workshop. Participants are encouraged to bring a brown bag lunch, snacks and drinks provided. Registration is free, limited to 30 people. Register at saintmarks.org/nonviolence. Questions? Contact Bob Chapman at searnbob@aol.com.

Collection of hygiene items for UCEF

SUNDAY, APRIL 22, AFTER MORNING SERVICES,
CATHEDRAL NAVE

United Churches Emergency Fund, located in the U District, provides "compassionate listening, focused referrals, and financial assistance to prevent homelessness." Saint Mark's helps provide monetary support to UCEF so they can help people who are outside of the zip codes they usually serve. At this time, UCEF needs hygiene items such as unopened trial size shampoo, conditioner, deodorant, toothpaste, socks, razors & hand lotion. They currently have an abundance of toothbrushes! We will collect hygiene items after each morning service on April 22. Please bring your donations to the table in the back of the nave on April 22, where we'll also welcome a UCEF representative who will give more details about their work. Questions? Email Marjorie Ringness at marjorie@ringness.org or visit uchurchesemergencyfund.org.

Liturgical Ministry gathering

SUNDAY, MAY 6, 12:30-2 P.M., CATHEDRAL NAVE,

Light lunch will be served

Saint Mark's will host a gathering for those interested or already participating in liturgical ministries: acolytes, altar guild, Eucharistic ministers (chalice bearers), Eucharistic visitors, greeters, readers/intercessors, vergers, and ushers at any of the Sunday eucharists. Come explore a new ministry or come be refreshed in a ministry you are already doing. Features a plenary session about the theology of ministry as well as a breakout session with the individual ministries. To sign up, or if you have any questions, please contact Chris McPeak, cmcpeak@saintmarks.org.

The Mideast Focus Film Series is back!

APRIL 20, 7 P.M., BLOEDEL HALL

The next film to be screened is Junction 48. This Israeli narrative film gives us an Arab's-eye-view of contemporary life in Israel. It tells the story of an emerging Palestinian Rap Artist who has issues with his family and confrontations with rival Israeli rappers. Fraught with complexities and confusions in Lyd (Lod)—we get a sense of how difficult it is to get a footing to push for change. To check out the full series schedule, pick up a brochure in the Narthex or visit saintmarks.org/filmseries.

The Cathedral Trio

FRIDAY, MAY 11, 7:30 P.M., CATHEDRAL NAVE

This trio of world class musicians was formed in 2007 and have been resident artists on Saint Mark's Music Series ever since. Their programs strike a perfect balance among beloved traditional idioms and engaging new music.

Mutual Ministries of Racial Reconciliation and De-escalation: A Conversation

SATURDAY, MAY 19, 10 A.M., BLOEDEL HALL

Join members of the Racial Reconciliation Group and De-escalation of Hate Crimes & Hate Speech Ministries as we engage in conversation about the future of these valued ministries. Mutual Ministries begin by building relationships with the congregation and the community. Mutual ministries are collaborative and asset-based, which include spiritual gifts and life experiences. The conversation will be facilitated by Bob Chapman, Canon Malcolm McLaurin, and Canon Jennifer King Daugherty. All are invited to explore our common purpose of engaging as partners in God's mission in the world. For questions please contact Bob, searnbob@aol.com or Malcolm, mmclaurin@saintmarks.org.

Alliance for Gun Responsibility annual luncheon

MONDAY, MAY 21, 12 P.M.

Come join others from Saint Mark's at the Alliance for Gun Responsibility's annual luncheon May 21 at noon at the Westin Hotel. As we mourn the lives lost to gun violence, let's gather to support progress—we're ready for more. For information please contact Stacy Andersen, andersenbicknell@gmail.com or Liz Shea, lizeshea@gmail.com, or register directly at secure.gunresponsibility.org/agr-luncheon. Let them know you're with the group from Saint Mark's.

Creation Care: Join a climate conversation

Saint Mark's Renewing Our Covenant statement said, "We will fight for climate justice and protection of our environment. As stewards of our land, air and water, we will stand with others in broad coalition to preserve these precious resources while working to reverse the troubling trends of human-caused climate change." You are invited to a conversation to deepen our understanding of creation care. What does it mean to be a green cathedral? How can addressing climate change be a ministry of hope and joy rather than a despairing attempt to hold back disaster? How are all justice ministries of Saint Mark's connected to climate change? What more can we be doing to place creation care at the center of our spiritual and community life? To join this initial conversation, please contact Andrew Himes, andrew@andrewhimes.org.
