The Saint Mark's Cathedral weekly newsletter

THE SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER ♦ APRIL 8, 2018

Choral Evensong today

TODAY, 4:30 P.M., CATHEDRAL NAVE

Saint Mark's Evensong Choir will be augmented by the Choristers of Trinity Cathedral, Portland, to offer Peter Hallock's beloved anthem, "The Lord is my Light," and a sparkling setting of the Magnificat and Nunc dimittis by Herbert Sumsion, among other joyful songs of praise and prayer. Come join in singing the hymns, and offer your prayers and praises on the eve of a new week in the lengthening light of the afternoon.

New Mel Bulter CD signing, immediately following Evensong

Saint Mark's Canon Musician emeritus Mel Bulter has a new album recently released on the Gothic label! Titled "Mel Butler in Recital," the CD features works by Liszt, Messiaen, Franck, Duruflé, and by Mel himself, all played on our beloved Flentrop. Mel will be available in the narthex immediately following Choral Evensong this afternoon to discuss and autograph his new album—bring your copy if you already have one, or you may purchase one in the narthex then, benefiting the Cathedral Shop.

Organ Plus Concert: Wyatt Smith & Natalie Ham

SUNDAY, APRIL 22, 2 P.M., THOMSEN CHAPEL

Wyatt Smith, organist, and Natalie Ham, flutist, offer a diverse program of solos and duets. Both artists are advanced candidates for the Doctor of Music Arts degree in the University of Washington School of Music. Mr. Smith is also the Organ Scholar at Epiphany Parish, Seattle.

Cathedral Day at Saint Mark's

SATURDAY, APRIL 28, 11 A.M. - 3 P.M.

Come one, come all! It's the annual celebration of the community of the Diocese of Olympia. People from Bellevue to Bellingham, Puyallup to Port Orchard will come to Saint Mark's on this special day. Grand procession, beautiful banners and diocesan confirmations. Carnival games, cathedral tours, food trucks—and much more! Fun for all ages, whatever the weather! The fun starts at 11 a.m. and goes til 3 p.m. Attendees are kindly asked to register so that we can have counts for food and activities. Register at saintmarks.org/cathedralday.

Newcomers & Inquirer's Brunch

TODAY, 12:30 P.M.

DIOCESAN HOUSE

If you are new to Saint Mark's, attended one of the Newcomer Coffee Hours, or you recently attended the Inquirer's Class, we invite you to a Sunday Brunch! Come and enjoy good food and fellowship, and get to know Saint Mark's clergy, staff and other members. We will gather after the 11 a.m. service, around 12:30 p.m., and stroll to Diocesan House, just north of the cathedral. We hope you can join us for a pleasant meal and an opportunity to ask questions, share reflections, and find out more about this congregation and faith experiences.

Hunger Offering Sunday

Today is Hunger Offering Sunday at Saint Mark's, where we take a special donation for our six partner food banks in Seattle: Immanuel Community Services, Lifelong AIDS Alliance, Compass Housing Alliance, the Pike Market Food Bank, the Food Bank at Saint Mary's, and St. Brigid's Banquet. These organizations help thousands of Seattleites who are struggling with food insecurity and basic living needs, and your donations make a big difference in their lives. Stop by the Hunger Offering table in the back of the nave to find out about what we do, and how you can help.

CATHEDRAL PRAYER LIST

To add a name to our prayer list, contact 206.323.0300 x314 or Joniepr@msn.com. Prayer requests are listed in Sundays & Beyond for four weeks, and, if needed, they are listed in the monthly Ongoing List, which is found in the Narthex.

Easter celebration of time and talent

During this Easter season, we celebrate your gifts of time and talent to all of Saint Mark's ministries and programs. Each week, we'll recognize a specific ministry area, giving thanks in our prayers and asking volunteers to stand and be recognized. April 8 – Worship and Liturgy; April 15 – Formation; April 22 – Community Life and Governance; April 29 – Justice and Reconciliation. If you volunteer in any of these ministry areas, please stand and be recognized. If you want to get involved in one of these ministry areas, please talk to one of those people standing up!

Save the dates and read the book!

Before Dean Thomason left on sabbatical, he encouraged the congregation to embark upon a study of Esther De Waal's Seeking God: The Way of St. Benedict. Please join the Rev. Canon Jennifer King Daugherty and Senior Warden Lynne Markova at a series of Sunday Forums at 10:10 a.m. on May 6, June 3, and July 8 to discuss and reflect on the ancient rhythms of Benedictine spirituality and the impact these rhythms have on our individual and communal lives today. Copies of the book are available for purchase in the Cathedral Shop. Questions? Contact Canon Jennifer, jkdaugherty@saintmarks.org, or Lynne Markova, lmarkova@comcast.net.

Creating a Culture of Peace: Active Non-Violence Workshop

SATURDAY, APRIL 21, 9 A.M., BLOEDEL HALL

In these divisive times, it can be difficult to live out our Baptismal promises, yet Jesus has shown us nonviolent ways of living in community. This workshop introduces nonviolent practices through group exercises, stories, reflection and discussion. It provides strategies to engage others respectfully and constructively. Participants will feel more creative and empowered to respond without violence and improve skills for respectful engagement, instead of confrontation that polarizes and demonizes. Janet Chisholm, longtime nonviolence trainer and Episcopalian activist, will lead the workshop. Participants are encouraged to bring a brown bag lunch, snacks and drinks provided. Registration is free, limited to 30 people. Register at saintmarks.org/nonviolence. Questions? Contact Bob Chapman at searnbob@aol.com.

Collection of hygiene items for UCEF

SUNDAY, APRIL 22, AFTER MORNING SERVICES, CATHEDRAL NAVE

United Churches Emergency Fund, located in the U District, provides "compassionate listening, focused referrals, and financial assistance to prevent homelessness." St. Mark's helps provide monetary support to UCEF so they can help people who are outside of the zip codes usually served by UCEF. UCEF also provides snack packs and hygiene kits for those who find themselves homeless. At this time, they have enough snack items but are in need of hygiene items such as toothbrushes/paste, small soaps and shampoos, razors and shaving cream, etc. We will collect hygiene items after each morning service on April 22. Please bring your donations to the table in the back of the nave. Questions? Email Marjorie Ringness, Marjorie@ringness.org or go to uchurchesemergencyfund.org.

Seattle Service Corps fundraiser

APRIL 14, 4-6 P.M., 3568 West Marginal Way SW
You are invited to a Fundraiser and Open House benefiting the Seattle Service Corps at the Mission to the Seafarers offices. Come out and hear about the Service Corps and what a “day in the life” for our members looks like. For more information, visit saintmarks.org/corps or contact Malcolm McLaurin, 206-323-0300 or mmclaurin@saintmarks.org.

Volunteer for the Hunger Offering!

The Hunger Offering at Saint Mark’s has been in partnership with six food banks in the Seattle area for over 10 years, and has raised over $100,000 to help low-income people and families who are experiencing food insecurity; and now, we’re looking for volunteers! Volunteers count donations after worship services once per month; coordinate quarterly disbursements; and post notices in Sundays & Beyond. That’s it, really! This role engages our mission to assist struggling people in our community. For more info, contact Michael Perera, perera.michael@gmail.com.

Biased Hate/Crime Speech De-escalation Book Club

SATURDAY, APRIL 14, 12-2 PM, LEFFLER LIVING ROOM
Join us as Bob Chapman facilitates a book club discussion on Radical Dharma: Talking Race, Love and Liberation. Igniting a long-overdue dialogue, the authors ask how teachings that transcend color, class, and caste are hindered by discrimination and the dynamics of power, shame, and ignorance. In a society where profit rules and people’s value is determined by the color of their skin, Radical Dharma recasts the concepts of engaged spirituality, social transformation, inclusiveness, and healing. Refreshments will be served. Questions? Contact Amanda Clark, amanda_bleu@hotmail.com.

Mid-east Focus Ministry Film Series

FRIDAYS, MARCH 9 – APRIL 27, 7 P.M., BLOEDEL HALL
“Pushing for Change!” is the theme of the fifth annual film series. We will experience how people push, and have pushed, for change. We will consider the consequences of the actions they, and we, use to push for change—and come to understand better what is going on in Palestine/Israel, and our part in it. To check out the series schedule, pick up a brochure in the Narthex or visit saintmarks.org/filmseries.

Cathedral Book Group

SUNDAY, MAY 13, 12:30 P.M. CATHEDRAL HOUSE 209
The Cathedral Book Group meets on the second Sunday of odd numbered months (May, July, Sept, etc). At each meeting we select a book for the following month. We will be discussing Music of the Ghosts by Vaddey Ratner, one the of NYTimes 100 best books of 2017 and a PEN/Hemingway finalist. This is a semi-autobiographical novel about a Cambodian woman who escaped the genocide of the Khmer Rouge as a child and returns with a letter signed by “the old musician.” For more information about the book group contact Pearl McElheran at pmcelheran@comcast.net.

Alliance for Gun Responsibility annual luncheon

MONDAY, MAY 21, 12 P.M.
Come join others from Saint Mark’s at the Alliance for Gun Responsibility’s annual luncheon May 21 at noon at the Westin Hotel. As we mourn the lives lost to gun violence, let’s gather to support progress—we’re ready for more. For information please contact Stacy Andersen, andersenbicknell@gmail.com or Liz Shea, lizeshea@gmail.com, or register directly at secure.gunresponsibility.org/agr-luncheon. Let them know you’re with the group from Saint Mark’s.

Creation Care: Join a climate conversation

Saint Mark’s Renewing Our Covenant statement said, “We will fight for climate justice and protection of our environment. As stewards of our land, air and water, we will stand with others in broad coalition to preserve these precious resources while working to reverse the troubling trends of human-caused climate change.” You are invited to a conversation to deepen our understanding of creation care. What does it mean to be a green cathedral? How can addressing climate change be a ministry of hope and joy rather than a despairing attempt to hold back disaster? How are the justice ministries of Saint Mark’s—focused on refugees, homelessness, racial injustice, global conflict, etc.—connected to climate change? What more can we be doing to place creation care at the center of our spiritual and community life? Date and location TBD. If you’d like an invitation to this initial conversation, please contact Andrew Himes, andrew@andrewhimes.org.

College for Congregational Development summer registration now open!

JUNE 10-16, 2018, Dumas Bay Conference Center;
Registration fee: $850 (scholarships available)
At the College for Congregational Development, clergy and lay leaders from parishes around the diocese come together to learn tools and strategies that help our spiritual communities be faithful, healthy, and vibrant. We gather to learn, connect, and return home with new energy and skills to effectively engage opportunities and challenges in our parishes. It's work—and it's fun!—and it's wonderful networking. (Presiding Bishop Michael Curry is going to spend a day participating in June!) Parishes send teams, who gain great benefit from working together. Saint Mark's is gathering a cohort for the week-long session in June 2018 and 2019 (it's a two-year commitment). Interested? Find more information at cdcollege.org. The Rev. Canon Nancy Ross, nross@saintmarks.org and The Rev. Cristi Chapman, cchapman@saintmarks.org are glad to answer questions.
