TRINITY SUNDAY ♦ MAY 27, 2018

International art exhibition coming to Saint Mark's

JUNE 10-AUGUST 7, CATHEDRAL NAVE

Opening program and reception – June 10, 5 p.m.

“I AM” celebrates the rich, diverse and pivotal contribution that Middle Eastern women make to the enduring global quest for harmony and peace. The I AM exhibition is designed to address stereotypes and challenge misconceptions of the “other.” A visual celebration of the crucial role that Middle Eastern women play as guardians of peace, I AM celebrates their strengths and contributions in the enduring global quest for a more harmonious and peaceful future. The exhibition is organized by CARAVAN, an international peacebuilding arts non-profit that focuses on building bridges through the arts between the creeds and cultures of the Middle East and West. ## Presiding Bishop Michael Curry to preach at Saint Mark's

CHORAL EVENSONG, JUNE 14, 7 P.M., Cathedral Nave

Saint Mark's is pleased to welcome The Most Rev. Michael B. Curry, Presiding Bishop of the Episcopal Church, to the cathedral on Thursday, June 14 to preach at a special service of Choral Evensong at 7 p.m. A Q&A hosted by Bishop Rickel and a festive reception will follow in the Cathedral Nave. Bishop Curry will also visit the Diocese of Olympia's Refugee Resettlement Office, the College for Congregational Development, and Chaplains on the Harbor, and will speak at public events across the diocese. Don't miss this extraordinary opportunity to hear from our Presiding Bishop and learn more about what the “Jesus Movement” means to the Episcopal Church in Western Washington! Planning to attend? Please note, we are expecting high attendance for this worship service. We encourage you to carpool where possible or take public transportation (the 49 bus stops right in front of Saint Mark's at Galer Street.) This not a ticketed event; Saint Mark's cannot offer reserved seating—we encourage you to arrive early!

Ramadan Iftar and fundraising event for ANERA & Arab Alliance

WEDNESDAY, MAY 30, 8-9:30 P.M., Skinner Auditorium

Saint Mark's MidEast Focus Ministry, in partnership with Seattle ServeHope, will sponsor a Ramadan Iftar and fundraising event for relief for families in Palestine & Lebanon through ANERA and the Arab Alliance. Renowned Palestinian chef Abeer Najjar is featured. Tickets can be purchased at the door for $55.

Northwest Community Bail Fund receives RFK Human Rights grant

Exciting news—the Robert F. Kennedy Human Rights (RFKHR) foundation has honored the Northwest Community Bail Fund (NCBF) with a grant award in support of bail relief! Founded at Saint Mark's and operating as a ministry of the cathedral, the NCBF advocates for bail reform and works to minimize the harm of the cash bail system by paying bail for people who would otherwise spend the pre-trial time in jail. In the last two years, the NCBF has bailed out 69 people, saving 3880 days in pre-trial detention, and $721,500 of taxpayer dollars. RFKHR supports local activists to ensure lasting positive change in governments and corporations. Please congratulate and thank Mary Lonien, Saint Mark's parishioner who made it all happen! ## Creation Liturgy begins June 3 at 9 a.m. Eucharist

As we head into the liturgical season known as "Ordinary Time," we will introduce new prayers into the summer 9:00 a.m. service, in keeping with our annual practice. The Episcopal tradition has such rich language and breadth of Spirit, this is a chance to listen with new ears and be inspired on new levels. In June, July, and August, the liturgy will focus on the gift and stewardship of creation, including prayers from the prayer books of New Zealand and Wales, and the resources of our Saint Mark's liturgy team, including Dean Steve Thomason. Come, let us worship!

Homelessness Advocacy and Partnerships

WEDNESDAY, MAY 30, 7 p.m., Cathedral House 210

All are invited to attend an organizational meeting for the Advocacy and Partnership group of the Homelessness Committee. This group will identify and plan for advocacy and partnerships both internally and externally. Join as we begin a year-long planning process for social justice and action for those who are homeless in Seattle.

Seeking God: The Way of St. Benedict

SUNDAYS, JUNE 3 & JULY 8, (and previously May 8)

10:10 A.M., Bloedel Hall

Before Dean Thomason left on sabbatical, he encouraged the congregation to embark upon a study of Esther de Waal's Seeking God: The Way of St. Benedict. Join Canon Daugherty and Senior Warden Lynne Markova to discuss the ancient rhythms of Benedictine spirituality and the impact these rhythms have on our individual and communal lives today. Copies of the book are available for purchase in the Cathedral Shop. All are welcome, whether you are reading the book or not; the leaders will summarize some of the themes for discussion. Questions? Contact Canon Daugherty, jkdaugherty@saintmarks.org, or Lynne Markova, lsmarkova@comcast.net.

Lay Chaplains in Community Gathering

SUNDAY, JUNE 3, 12:30 P.M. Cathedral House 210

The next gathering of Lay Chaplains in Community is coming up! We will gather for team building, formation, and talk about long-term planning. Lay Chaplains at Saint Mark's provide spiritual continuity and help maintain a faith connection for those people of Saint Mark's who live in retirement or other care facilities, who, because of mobility or other limitations, are not able to regularly attend worship services. Lay Chaplains are specially trained to offer pastoral care and the "ministry of presence." For more information contact Sandra Smith, sandrasmith.smith747@gmail.com, or The Rev. Cristi Chapman, cchapman@saintmarks.org.

"The Detention Lottery" Immersive Theater Production on Immigrant Rights

FRIDAY, JUNE 8, 1 P.M., BLOEDEL HALL

This immersive theater experience written and enacted by immigration attorneys gives audiences a "first-hand" experience of what it's like to be arrested and detained by ICE officers and sentenced to deportation by an immigration judge. During the performance, you (or your fictional family member) will be detained and have your merit for relief from deportation determined by an immigration judge, followed up by talk-backs led by experienced removal defense attorneys. Gain a greater understanding of our immigration enforcement system and be empowered to stand up for immigrant protections and rights.

Baccalaureate Sunday

SUNDAY, JUNE 10, 9 A.M., CATHEDRAL NAVE

Saint Mark's will recognize graduates of high school, college and other programs with a blessing at the 9 a.m. service on Sunday, June 10. Please help us include all our graduates by sending their name and graduation information to Canon Malcolm McLaurin, mmclaurin@saintmarks.org by Tuesday, June 5 at 5 p.m.

Underhill House Listener Training

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 13, 12 P.M.-2:30 P.M., Underhill House

Underhill House, a quiet place to pause for prayer, is offering its next Listener training on Wednesday, June 13 from 12 p.m.-2:30 p.m. Come consider whether you'd like to greet, listen and pray with our guests once or twice a month, Wednesdays or Thursdays on Capitol Hill near Broadway and Republican. Come and discern — no commitment necessary to attend training. If you have questions or would like to sign up, please contact Susan Dean at susan@underhillhouse.org. To learn more please visit our web site at underhillhouse.org/partners.

Farewell Picnic for the McLaurin Family

SATURDAY, JUNE 16, 11 A.M.-4 P.M. Lower Woodland Park Shelter #6, 1000 North 50th Street

Canon Malcolm

McLaurin and his family are answering the call to enter seminary at Sewanee. Although we will greatly miss the McLaurin's fellowship and ministry among us, we are also very happy to see them move in a new and exciting direction. Please join in a parish-wide picnic to celebrate the McLaurin Family as they prepare to leave Seattle and establish their new home in Tennessee. The event is informal and all are welcome. Join the fun! RSVP at bit.ly/mclaurin and contribute to the celebration by signing up to bring food or fun games. Questions? Contact Irene Beausoleil, ibeausoleil@saintmarks.org.

La Palma Folk Art in the Cathedral Shop

La Palma is a town in the mountains of northern El Salvador. Most of its residents are peasant-artists, who have created a unique style in the world of folk art. These lovely hand-painted pieces reflect the images and folklore of the region. A nice selection is now available in the Cathedral Shop.

Summer programming for children, youth, and their families

Godly Play, Jesus and His Kingdom of Equals, and regular Youth group programming has concluded for the summer. Children's Chapel will continue until June 24. Stay tuned for occasional offerings throughout the summer for children, youth and families, and contact Kelly, Cristi, or Jennifer (children@saintmarks.org) with any questions.

Starting a New Conversation about Creation Care

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 20, 6:45 P.M., BLOEDEL HALL

What does it mean to be a green cathedral? How can addressing climate change be a ministry of hope and joy rather than a despairing attempt to hold back disaster? Hear a suggestion from EarthMinistry to launch a Creation Care Committee at Saint Mark's, and learn about the Carbon Fee & Dividend Initiative on the ballot in Washington State in November. For more information, contact Andrew Himes, andrew@andrewhimes.org.

Annual Pride Parade

SUNDAY, JUNE 24, 1 P.M.

It's time to show your Episcopal Pride once again. Saint Mark's will walk in the Pride Parade this year with the Diocesan contingent led by Integrity Puget Sound. Plan on gathering at our assigned spot by 1 p.m. on June 24. We will have Episcopal and Saint Mark's placards to carry. Sign up back at the Welcome Table if you want to participate. Signing up is essential—we need your contact info to notify you of our gathering spot, which we get only a week before the parade. Join us to step out for proudly for our pride in the Episcopal Church where everyone is truly welcome. "Walk in love as Christ loved us...." Questions? Contact Deacon Earl Grout, egrout@saintmarks.org.

Education for Ministry (EfM) classes for 2018-19

Saint Mark's now has 3 EfM classes! Each class is welcoming new students this fall, as well as those who wish to resume the program. EfM is a four-year program for lay people to study scripture, church history, and modern theology. Classes connect the material with church tradition, personal experiences, individual beliefs and current events. Three different classes meet weekly September to June at Saint Mark's: Sunday 6:30-8:30 p.m., Monday 10 a.m.-12:30 p.m. or Monday 6:30-8:30 p.m. Each class is limited to 12 people; enrollment starts now and ends in early August or when classes are full. Tuition, including books, is $375. Please inquire by contacting clergy or class mentors: Sunday evening: Penelope Jackson, pbjackson@mac.com. Monday morning: Maria Coldwell, mvcoldwell@hotmail.com, Monday evening: Tom Hayton, tomhayton@yahoo.com.
