The Power of the Female Voice in the Middle East

TODAY, 2-4 P.M., CATHEDRAL NAVE

In conjunction with the "I AM" exhibit currently on display in the Cathedral Nave, Saint Mark's will host a panel discussion, "The Power of the Female Voice in the Middle East," today. Moderated by Saint Mark's parishioner Ruth McRee, the panel features Dr. Kimberly Segall, Professor of English/Cultural Studies, Seattle Pacific University; Laura Lasworth, Professor of Art, Seattle Pacific University, "On Art and Resonance"; Ranna Harb, graduate student, University of Washington, "Visuals: A closer look at Palestinian diaspora in Seattle"; and Dr. Amal Winter, clinical psychologist and social activist. Read the full schedule for events related to "I AM" at saintmarks.org/iam.

Circle of Security: A Discussion Facilitated by Marilyn Redlich

TODAY, 10 A.M., Cathedral House 210

Marilyn Redlich, educator, psychotherapist, and facilitator for the international Anglican Communion Safe Church Commission will provide a brief explanation of the Circle of Security, a relationship-based program for building healthy relationships that is rooted in attachment theory and research. She will then facilitate a conversation geared toward parents, grandparents and carers of young (and older) children who want to explore their own way of relating with the children in their lives. Children's activities provided during the discussion in the playground behind the St. Nicholas Building. Questions? Contact Kelly Moody, kmoody@saintmarks.org.

Pride Parade today

TODAY AT 1 P.M.

"Walk in love as Christ loved us..." Join us as Saint Mark's walks in the Pride Parade today! We will be with the Diocesan contingent led by Integrity Puget Sound, gathering at our assigned spot by 1 p.m. We will provide Episcopal and Saint Mark's signs to carry. Sign up back at the Welcome Table if you want to participate; signing up is essential so that we can notify you of our gathering spot. Join us to step out for proudly for our pride in the Episcopal Church where everyone is truly welcome. Questions? Contact Deacon Earl Grout, egrout@saintmarks.org.

Memorial service for Laura Poston

Laura Poston, former member of Saint Mark's Cathedral who moved to Colorado to be closer to her children, died on June 14. She was a faithful regular at the 7 a.m. Thursday liturgy. A memorial service will be held at Saint Mark's on Thursday, July 12, at 2 p.m., followed by a reception in Bloedel Hall.

Summer programming for children and youth

Godly Play, Jesus and His Kingdom of Equals, and regular Youth group programming have concluded for the summer. Today is the last day of Children's Chapel for the season. Stay tuned for occasional offerings throughout the summer for children, youth and families. Questions? Contact Kelly Moody, Director of Children and Family Ministries, kmoody@saintmarks.org.

The Primrose Players present The Tempest

TODAY, 4 P.M., BLOEDEL HALL

A classic tale of magic, revenge, and true love, The Tempest is William Shakespeare's final solo play and the culmination of his art. This magical fantasy transpires on an enchanted island inhabited by some of Shakespeare's strangest and most intriguing characters: An earthy monster, an airy spirit, and the magus Prospero, who conjures a storm that shipwrecks his enemies on the island. While Prospero initially plans revenge, it is he who learns the lesson of forgiveness. Brandon Brown directs eleven local theater professionals, who bring to life a variety of vivid, complex and engaging characters. Freewill offering, to help make more shows like this possible. Questions? Contact Dan Niven, niven@msn.com.

Mutual Ministries of Racial Reconciliation and De-escalation: A Conversation

MONDAY, JUNE 25, 6 P.M., CATHEDRAL HOUSE 209

Join members of the Racial Reconciliation Group and De-escalation of Hate Crimes & Hate Speech Ministries as we engage in conversation about the future of these valued ministries. Mutual Ministries begin by building relationships with the congregation and the community. Mutual ministries are collaborative and asset-based, which include spiritual gifts and life experiences. The conversation will be facilitated by Bob Chapman. For questions please contact Bob Chapman, searnbob@aol.com.

An Evening of Jazz with the Corps

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 27, 6 PM, BLOEDEL HALL

As their year of service comes to a close, come spend an evening with the Seattle Service Corps! Join us as we reflect on the year and share the next stop on our journey, while enjoying heavy hors-d'oeuvres prepared by the Corps members and the musical stylings of Wayne Hawkins.

Malcolm's Farewell Coffee

SUNDAY JULY 1, 10:10 AM, CATHEDRAL NAVE

Please join us for cake and coffee as we bid farewell and godspeed to Canon Malcolm McLaurin. July 1 is his last Sunday at Saint Mark's before he departs for seminary at the University of the South in Sewanee, Tennessee.

Newcomers Coffee with Clergy

SUNDAY, JULY 1, AFTER 9 & 11 A.M. SERVICES, Leffler Living Room

Each month, Saint Mark's hosts a conversation with newcomers after both 9 a.m. and 11 a.m. services to help us get to know each other, share our stories, and introduce newcomers to Saint Mark's and the Episcopal Church. Contact Deacon Earl, newcomers@saintmarks.org or 206.518.2833.

Memorial Service for Randy Revelle

The Memorial Service for longtime Saint Mark's parishioner and former King County Executive Randy Revelle will be held on July 8 at 2 p.m. in the Cathedral Nave at Saint Mark's.

Creative Dramatics: Exploring the I AM exhibit through Drama

SUNDAY, JULY 8, 10 A.M., Cathedral Nave/McCaw Chapel
Join this interactive workshop to explore the art of the "I AM" exhibition, currently on view. In small groups and as a whole group, we will use creative dramatics to enter the worlds of these pieces and discover how we are connected to the stranger in our midst. This offering will be particularly suitable for children and families, and no prior drama experience is needed. We will move a bit (tailored to our different ability levels) and will share our discoveries with each other as time allows. Questions? Contact Kelly Moody, kmoody@saintmarks.org.

Choral Evensong—sending off our England-bound choir

THURSDAY, JULY 12, 7:30 P.M., CATHEDRAL NAVE
Saint Mark's choristers, teen and adult singers bound for England give thanks for the support of this community as they prepare for their residencies at Ely Cathedral, and at Saint Paul's, London, July 15-29. They invite all to join them in offering eventide prayers and praise to God two nights before they depart. Come, hear a sampling of what our musical ambassadors will offer everyday in England. Questions? Contact Canon Michael Kleinschmidt, mkleinschmidt@saintmarks.org.

New and restocked books in the Cathedral Shop

The Cathedral Shop now carries the official catalog for the I AM exhibit! We've also got more copies in stock of Crazy Christians by Presiding Bishop Michael Curry, The Prophet by Khalil Gibran and Seeking God by Esther de Waal. Stop in today and pick up your next summer read!

Episcopal woman chaplain seeks housing

An Episcopal woman in chaplain training is seeking a studio or small apartment for the next year while she completes a chaplain residency program at the VA. If you have a small, separate unit in your home or know of one that she can affordably occupy, please contact Carrie Littauer at carrie.littauer@gmail.com or 347-545-9244.

Saint Mark's is Hiring! Do you know of a great candidate?

The Child Care Center at Saint Mark's Episcopal Cathedral seeks new members for their children's ministry team. Child care team members are an integral part of the Cathedral's vision for Children's and Family Ministries, and are responsible for welcoming young children and their parents to Cathedral events, orienting parents to the policies and procedures of the childcare center, and providing warm and engaging care for children during worship services, community events, and parish education. For more information or to apply, visit saintmarks.org/employment.

Altar flowers to commemorate a special day or individual

Flowers give beauty, hope and solace and enhance the fabric of the church. They can also be a meaningful way to celebrate or commemorate a special person in your life, or an occasion such as a birthday or anniversary. Sign up to honor or remember your special someone or date on the new Altar Flowers Calendar on the Welcome Table. You may pick a specific Sunday and donate an amount that is comfortable for you and the Flower Ministry will handle the rest! Questions? Contact the Flower Ministry at flowers@saintmarks.org.

Education for Ministry (EfM) classes for 2018-19

Saint Mark's now has 3 EfM classes! Each class is welcoming new students this fall, as well as those who wish to resume the program. EfM is a four-year program for lay people to study scripture, church history, and modern theology. Classes connect the material with church tradition, personal experiences, individual beliefs and current events. Three different classes meet weekly September to June at Saint Mark's: Sunday 6:30-8:30 p.m., Monday 10 a.m.-12:30 p.m. or Monday 6:30-8:30 p.m. Each class is limited to 12 people; enrollment starts now and ends in early August or when classes are full. Tuition, including books, is $375. Please inquire by contacting clergy or class mentors:

Sunday p.m.: Penelope Jackson, pbjackson@mac.com

Monday a.m.: Maria Coldwell, mvcoldwell@hotmail.com

Monday p.m.: Tom Hayton, tomhayton@yahoo.com

Ministry Opportunity: Cathedral Office Volunteer have an opening for a front desk volunteer in the cathedral office on Fridays from 9 a.m.-4:30 p.m. This ministry provides the initial contact to many people who come to Saint Mark's. It primarily entails greeting visitors and answering the phone, and assisting with office projects as needed.

Interested in joining this friendly and dedicated team? Contact Irene Beausoleil at 206-323-0300 x227.

Saint Mark's Kitchen Guild Seeks New Members

The NEW Saint Mark's Kitchen Guild was founded by leaders in the food ministries that share Bloedel Kitchen, and is open to all who wish to help steward our shared resources. The Guild met for their second kitchen workday (and festive breakfast) on May 27. Come join in the fun, and be part of cleaning, polishing, learning about food safety and solving storage and maintenance challenges in Bloedel Kitchen. For more information, contact Marc Aubertin, marcgaubertin@gmail.com.
