

SAINT MARK'S
EPISCOPAL CATHEDRAL

SAINT MARK'S CHOIR SCHOOL SUMMER CAMP 2018
CHORAL EVENSONG

Friday, August 24, 2018

4:00 PM

HOLY GOD,

who calls us beyond the limits of our poor understandings,
and holds wide heaven's door to receptive hearts,

take us in this holy place, we pray, by the grace of music,
into the wonder that silences all agitation,
into the praise that knits up all fear.

And lead us on by the way of music to glimpse a oneness which cannot yet be fully seen, and find a rest which cannot yet be fully known.

So shall we perceive that unity which foreshadows the end of all divisions and that silence which heralds the beginning of all joys;

and know ourselves to be, at last,
your redeemed people;
graced and raised by song. Amen.

SAINT MARK'S
EPISCOPAL CATHEDRAL

Out of respect for the liturgy we are about to celebrate, please turn off all cell phones and audible devices.

The Very Reverend Steven L. Thomason, Dean and Rector of Saint Mark's Cathedral, Officiant

A bell bids all to stand as able.

INTROIT Song of Isaiah

WORDS: after Isaiah 12:6
MUSIC: Richard Proulx (1967-2010)

Cry aloud! Ring out your joy, ye citizens of Zion,
for the great one in the midst of you
is the Holy One of Israel

AT THE PROCESSION Organ improvisation

Canon Musician Michael Kleinschmidt

THE INVITATORY & PSALTER

PRECES Deus, in adjutorium

All are seated.

PSALMODY Psalm 27

simplified Anglican chant by Robert Knox Kennedy (b. 1945)

The Choristers introduce the antiphon, all repeat it. The Choristers chant the verses, all repeating the antiphon as indicated.

The LORD is my light and my sal - va - tion; whom then shall I fear.

Dominus illuminatio

THE LORD is my light and my salvation; whom then shall I fear?

The LORD is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid? ANTIPHON

5 One thing have I asked of the LORD, one thing I seek;

That I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life;

7 For in the day of trouble he shall keep me safe in his shelter;

he shall hide me in the secrecy of his dwelling and set me high upon a rock. ANTIPHON

9 Therefore I will offer in his dwelling an oblation with sounds of great gladness;

I will sing and make music to the LORD.

10 Hearken to my voice, O LORD, when I call;

Have mercy on me and answer me. ANTIPHON

11 You speak in my heart and say, "Seek my face,"

Your face, LORD, will I seek.

17/18 I believe I shall see the goodness of the LORD in the land of the living.

Wait for the LORD; be strong, and let your heart take courage! ANTIPHON

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit

As it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen. ANTIPHON

THE LESSONS

Please remain seated for the reading.

READING Isaiah 66:1–2, 18–23

THUS says the LORD:
Heaven is my throne
and the earth is my footstool;
what is the house that you would build for me,
and what is my resting place?
All these things my hand has made,
and so all these things are mine,
says the LORD.
But this is the one to whom I will look,
to the humble and contrite in spirit,
who trembles at my word.

For I know their works and their thoughts, and I am coming to gather all nations and tongues; and they shall come and shall see my glory, and I will set a sign among them. From them I will send survivors to the nations, to Tarshish, Put, and Lud—which draw the bow—to Tubal and Javan, to the coastlands far away that have not heard of my fame or seen my glory; and they shall declare my glory among the nations. They shall bring all your kindred from all the nations as an offering to the LORD, on horses, and in chariots, and in litters, and on mules, and on dromedaries, to my holy mountain Jerusalem, says the LORD, just as the Israelites bring a grain offering in a clean vessel to the house of the LORD. And I will also take some of them as priests and as Levites, says the LORD.

For as the new heavens and the new earth,
which I will make,
shall remain before me, says the LORD;
so shall your descendants and your name remain.
From new moon to new moon,
and from sabbath to sabbath,
all flesh shall come to worship before me,
says the LORD. ♦

Please stand as you are able.

CANTICLE Luke 1:46–55 [The Song of Mary] ♦ sung by the Choir

setting by David Hogan (1949–1996)
The Washington Service (1994)

Magnificat

MY SOUL doth magnify the Lord, *
and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Savior.
For he hath regarded *
the lowliness of his handmaiden.
For behold from henceforth * all generations shall call me blessed.
For he that is mighty hath magnified me, *
and holy is his Name.
And his mercy is on them that fear him *
throughout all generations.

He hath showed strength with his arm; *
 he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.
 He hath put down the mighty from their seat, *
 and hath exalted the humble and meek.
 He hath filled the hungry with good things, *
 and the rich he hath sent empty away.
 He remembering his mercy hath holpen his servant Israel, *
 as he promised to our forefathers, Abraham and his seed for ever.
 Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost: *
 as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Please be seated.

READING 1 Peter 5:1–11

NOW as an elder myself and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, as well as one who shares in the glory to be revealed, I exhort the elders among you to tend the flock of God that is in your charge, exercising the oversight, not under compulsion but willingly, as God would have you do it—not for sordid gain but eagerly. Do not lord it over those in your charge, but be examples to the flock. And when the chief shepherd appears, you will win the crown of glory that never fades away. In the same way, you who are younger must accept the authority of the elders. And all of you must clothe yourselves with humility in your dealings with one another, for “God opposes the proud,

 but gives grace to the humble.”

Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, so that he may exalt you in due time. Cast all your anxiety on him, because he cares for you. Discipline yourselves, keep alert. Like a roaring lion your adversary the devil prowls around, looking for someone to devour. Resist him, steadfast in your faith, for you know that your brothers and sisters in all the world are undergoing the same kinds of suffering. And after you have suffered for a little while, the God of all grace, who has called you to his eternal glory in Christ, will himself restore, support, strengthen, and establish you. To him be the power forever and ever. Amen. ♦

Please stand as you are able.

CANTICLE Luke 2:29–32 [The Song of Simeon] ♦ sung by the Choir

Hogan, Washington Service

Nunc dimittis

LORD, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, *
 according to thy word;
 For mine eyes have seen thy salvation, *
 which thou hast prepared before the face of all people,
 To be a light to lighten the Gentiles, *
 and to be the glory of thy people Israel.
 Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost: *
 as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Officiant Show us your mer - cy, O Lord;

Assembly And grant us your salva - tion.

Officiant Clothe your ministers with right - eousness;

Assembly Let your people sing with joy.

Officiant Give peace, O Lord, in all the world;

Assembly For only in you can we live in safe - ty.

Officiant Lord, keep this nation un - der your care;

Assembly And guide us in the way of jus - tice and truth.

Officiant Let your way be known up - on earth;

Assembly Your saving health among all na - tions.

Officiant Let not the needy, O Lord, be forgot - ten;

Assembly Nor the hope of the poor be ta - ken a - way.

Officiant Create in us clean hearts, O God;

Assembly And sustain us with your Holy Spi rit.

A COLLECT FOR PEACE

MOST holy God, the source of all good desires, all right judgments, and all just works: Give to us, your servants, that peace which the world cannot give, so that our minds may be fixed on the doing of your will, and that we, being delivered from the fear of all enemies, may live in peace and quietness; through the mercies of Christ Jesus our Savior. Amen.

A COLLECT FOR CHURCH MUSICIANS & ARTISTS

O GOD, whom saints and angels delight to worship in heaven: Be ever present with your servants who seek through art and music to perfect the praises offered by your people on earth; and grant to them even now glimpses of your beauty, and make them worthy at length to behold it unveiled for evermore; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A COLLECT FOR MISSION

KEEP WATCH, dear Lord, with those who work, or watch, or weep this night, and give your angels charge over those who sleep. Tend the sick, Lord Christ; give rest to the weary, bless the dying, soothe the suffering, pity the afflicted, shield the joyous; and all for your love's sake. Amen.

Please be seated for the anthem.

ANTHEM

A Prayer of Saint Richard of Chichester

WORDS: attr. Richard of Chichester (1197–1253) trans. Rev. George R. Bullock-Webster (1858–1934)
MUSIC: L.J. White (1910–1970)

OHOLY Jesus, most merciful Redeemer, friend and brother—
May I know Thee more clearly,
Love Thee more dearly,
Follow Thee more nearly.
Amen.

Please stand as you are able.

A PRAYER OF ST. JOHN CHRYSOSTOM

ALmighty God, you have given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplication to you; and you have promised through your well-beloved Son that when two or three are gathered together in his Name you will be in the midst of them: Fulfill now, O Lord, our desires and petitions as may be best for us; granting us in this world knowledge of your truth, and in the age to come life everlasting. Amen.
