Three parishioners still needed to host Seattle Service Corps members for a weekend

FRIDAY, SEP. 21 - SUNDAY, SEP. 23, 6 P.M.

As part of Saint Mark's commitment to hospitality to the Seattle Service Corps members who live on the Saint Mark's campus and serve around Seattle, we are seeking 3 more parishioners who would enjoy hosting one of our corps members for a weekend when they arrive in September. Our hope is this will be a way for the corps members to connect directly with at least one parishioner/family at the very beginning of their time in Seattle. It will also give each corps member a chance to spend a weekend somewhere other than Saint Mark's and see another area of Seattle. We hope you will think of some fun Seattle activities to enjoy together in/around your neighborhood! Interested? Contact Adam Conley, aconley@saintmarks.org or Kara King, king.kara@gmail.com.

Protagonist, works by artist Sara Alfageeh

This collection of graphic illustrations by artist Sara Alfageeh is on display in the Hallway Gallery (second floor of Cathedral House) through September 23. Highlighting different points in Alfageeh's journey as a graphic illustrator, Protagonist considers the various sources of characters that shape our own story. These prints are available to purchase for $150 each, with all proceeds benefitting the Visual Arts Ministry at Saint Mark's.

The Wisdom School at Saint Mark’s: Upcoming programs

Conspire 2018: The Path of Descent as Path of Transformation

A live webcast with Richard Rohr, Barbara Brown Taylor, Mirabai Starr, and others

AUGUST 31, 12-7 P.M.; SEPTEMBER 1, 8 A.M.-5:30 P.M.;

SEPTEMBER 2, 8:15 A.M.-5 P.M., Bloedel Hall

How shall we consider dark times as the source for sacred wisdom? We will explore contemplative teachings, practices, reflection, and conversation with Richard Rohr, Barbara Holmes, Brian McLaren, Barbara Brown Taylor and Mirabai Starr as we seek healthy ways of companionship, community, and courage for our own unique journeys of becoming Love in our world. The mystics of many spiritual traditions teach the path of descent—surrender, generative self-emptying—as the way of transformation. More than ideas or success, the suffering and woundedness we inevitably experience can be our teachers. Open heart, mind, and body to the surprising wisdom to be found in transforming darkness and descent. Fee is $10, which includes refreshments, light breakfast, Saturday lunch and post-webcast access to videos. Registration and a draft schedule for the weekend can be found at saintmarks.org/wisdomschool.

Enneagram 3.0—Diving Deeper on your Spiritual Journey

Facilitated by Sarah Walston, MA, MEd, LMHC, certified Enneagram instructor

FRIDAY SEP. 14; 6-8 P.M. & SATURDAY SEP. 15, 9:30 A.M.-2:30 P.M., Bloedel Hall

Building on two previous workshops in 2017, this workshop will focus in greater detail in three areas: how the Enneagram informs dynamics of interpersonal relationships in family systems, the work place and other settings; common pitfalls in misidentification of one’s Enneagram type; and how the Enneagram serves as companion on the spiritual journey of self-work and communal experience. Fee is $50 for the two-day workshop, which includes Saturday light breakfast and lunch. Register at saintmarks.org/wisdomschool.

Why are they Fleeing? A conversation with Cristosal

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 5, 6 P.M., CATHEDRAL NAVE Images of Central American children at our southern border torn from their parents' arms have been making headlines and prompting widespread public outrage. Our government explains such measures as a necessary strategy to deter "illegal immigration", yet families continue to arrive, undeterred. Meanwhile, few seem to ask: Why are families willing to risk their lives to seek safe haven in the United States? What are they fleeing?
And how can we address the root causes of this migration crisis? Join a conversation and dinner with Noah Bullock, Cristosal Executive Director, the leading NGO working on forced displacement due to violence in the Northern Triangle countries of El Salvador, Guatemala, and Honduras—countries from which the majority of families at our border are fleeing.
Cristosal takes a holistic, human rights-based approach that ranges from emergency humanitarian assistance for victims of forced displacement to strategic litigation. Register at saintmarks.org/cristosal.
