Walking together in the Way of Love: Annual Giving for 2019

The Way of Love is embodied in many ways, including through shared worship and prayer and by offering ourselves in gratitude to God. In the end, the Way of Love is about conversion: trusting that through regular spiritual practice, the presence of the living God will be revealed more deeply in you and in community. How might your own financial giving at Saint Mark's become a practice of conversion?

You can make your financial commitment using paper pledge forms, or online at saintmarks.org/give. On All Saint's Sunday, Nov. 4, we will gather and bless financial commitments received to date for 2019. Please join us that day after morning services for a "Feast of All the Saints" as we welcome the newly baptized and give thanks to everyone who has made a financial commitment for 2019. On Sunday, Nov. 18, names of everyone who has made a pledge for the upcoming year will be published—to include your name, please make yours by Nov. 4. If you have questions, please contact Erik Donner at 206-323-0300, ext. 217 or edonner@saintmarks.org.

Dean Thomason presents: The Message of Hope in the Book of Revelation

Bloedel Hall; Community dinner: 6-6:30 p.m. (adults $7, children $5, max family $20); Program: 6:45 p.m., no fee

What does the Book of Revelation have to say to us about the challenges of our time? Abuses of power by leaders, suffering the slings and arrows of injustice in light of one's faith, an alternative message of hope for what feels like the "end times" in which we live today...Drawing on his sabbatical studies while on the island of Patmos, Dean Thomason views the controversial book through an interpretive lens of hope that can inform our lives today in meaningful ways.

strives for education while still showing great understanding and love for the world she leaves behind.” And, plan head! On January 13, 2019 we discuss the
