

SUNDAYS & BEYOND

The Saint Mark's Cathedral weekly newsletter

THE TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST ♦ OCTOBER 28, 2018

Shifting Seats of Power in Jerusalem

TODAY, 10:10 A.M., Bloedel Hall

The Rev. Canon John L. Peterson will speak about the role Jerusalem serves for the three Abrahamic faiths and how the three traditions have been impacted in light of the U.S.'s decision to move its embassy from Tel Aviv to Jerusalem. Rev. Peterson currently serves as Canon for Global Justice and Reconciliation at Washington National Cathedral and previously served as Secretary General of the Worldwide Anglican Communion and Dean of St. George's College in Jerusalem.

Book signing event: Alan Davidson's *The History of St. Mark's

TODAY, 9 A.M.-1 P.M., Cathedral Shop

The long-anticipated historical volume on Saint Mark's, The History of St. Mark's Episcopal Cathedral: St. Mark's Parish, 1889-1897, written by Alan Davidson, will be celebrated at the Cathedral Shop next Sunday with a book signing and release event. The volume is exhaustively researched and extensively illustrated and tells the story of the founding of Saint Mark's Parish, and its earliest years—it is the first installment of projected series of books to tell the entire 130 year history of this community. Join us in celebrating this exciting release, and get your copy signed!

Walking together in the Way of Love: Annual Giving for 2019

There is an incredible commitment to the ministry and mission of Saint Mark's Cathedral, thanks to your generosity of time, talent, and financial resources. As we pass the 60% point in this year's annual campaign, your generosity continues. As of Friday, October 19, we have:

135 commitments for 2019, totaling $508,548

74 increased commitments, with a net increase totaling $45,261

20 new commitments, totaling $21,957

322 commitments for 2018 from whom we've not yet heard

Thank you to all who have made your commitments so far. As a reminder, the Ingathering will be held Sunday, November 4. You can make your pledge online anytime at saintmarks.org/give or contact Erik Donner at (206) 323-0300 x 217. You can also bring your financial commitment on Sunday, November 4. Your gift matters! Finally, we will give thanks on November 18 for all those who have made financial commitments for 2019 by publishing a list of names in celebration and gratitude. To include your name on that list, please make your pledge by All Saints' Sunday, November 4. Again, thank you for all you do in support of Saint Mark's. We are blessed by your generosity!

Dean Thomason presents: The Message of Hope in the Book of Revelation

WEDNESDAYS, OCT. 24, NOV. 7, 6:45-8:15 P.M.,

Bloedel Hall; Community dinner: 6-6:30 p.m. (adults $7, children $5, max family $20); Program: 6:45 p.m., no fee

What does the Book of Revelation have to say to us about the challenges of our time? Abuses of power by leaders, suffering the slings and arrows of injustice in light of one's faith, an alternative message of hope for what feels like the "end times" in which we live today...Drawing on his sabbatical studies while on the island of Patmos, Dean Thomason views the controversial book through an interpretive lens of hope that can inform our lives today in meaningful ways.

And I, Francis* exhibit reception today

TODAY, 12:15-1:15 P.M., Hallway Gallery (Second Floor of Cathedral House)

This series of seven scenes from the life of Saint Francis, strikingly depicted by Northwest artist Kathleen Frugé Brown, is on view through October. Each scene is viewed as if through Francis's own eyes. A reception with the artist and author, celebrating a new edition of the novella, will be held on in the Hallway Gallery today. A book release and signing will be held December 2 from 8 a.m.-1 p.m. in the Cathedral Shop." Learn more about the Visual Arts at Saint Mark's at saintmarks.org/visualarts.

Memorial service for Janet McCully

The memorial service for Janet McCully will be held in the Cathedral Nave today at 2 p.m. A reception will follow in Bloedel Hall.

CATHEDRAL PRAYER LIST

To add a name to our prayer list, contact 206.323.0300 x314 or Joniepr@msn.com. Prayer requests are listed in Sundays & Beyond for four weeks, and, if needed, they are listed in the monthly Ongoing List, which is found in the Narthex.

The flowers in the Nave are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of Janet McCully by her family; and in loving memory of Douglas Edward Holcomb by his sister, Lee Holcomb, on behalf of his children: Holly Nell, Robin Marie and David Edward.

The Wisdom School & Visual Arts Ministry present Visual Arts and Spiritual Experience

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 9 A.M. - 3 P.M., Skinner Hall

Join Virginia Maksymowicz, artist of the Stations of the Cross in the nave last Lent, for a very special workshop on visual arts and spirituality. In the morning, Ms. Maksymowicz will consider the materials and techniques of contemporary visual artists and how they act as signifiers of meaning. She will lead the group in creative exploration of making art as spiritual experience. After lunch, participants will visit the Henry Art Gallery to view James Turrell's "Light Reign" and to engage other works specifically chosen for this workshop. The workshop fee, which includes lunch and admission to the Henry, is $50 for adults and $40 for students and seniors. Register at saintmarks.org/wisdom.

Choral Evensong for the Festivals of All Saints and All Souls

SUNDAY, NOV. 4,
4:30 P.M., *Cathedral Nave**

Unite your eventide prayers and praises with the saints and all whom we love but see no longer in this first Evensong after our return to Pacific Standard Time. Saint Mark's Evensong Choir will sing Herbert Brewer's rousing setting of the Magnificat and Nunc dimittis in the key of D, and Edgar Bainton's beloved setting of St. John's words from Revelation, "And I saw a new heaven and a new earth... and God shall wipe away all tears." *Please note that incense will be used at this service.

All Saints' Sunday—11 a.m. liturgy (Nov. 4)

Please note that the 11 a.m. service next Sunday will include the use of incense as part of the liturgy on this feast day.

20s+30s: Questioning Together

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 7:30-9 P.M., Leffler Living Room

This group gathering offers a supportive community for those in their 20s and 30s to explore questions of faith and meaning in our time. We will meet on the first Monday of every month. The topic for November: "What is sin? What is forgiveness?" Wherever you are in your faith journey, you are welcome. A light dinner will be served; an RSVP is appreciated but not required. To RSVP or for questions, contact Rachel McNary, rachel.mcenary@gmail.com. We look forward to seeing you there!

Compline Choir House Concert: Songs of Peace

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 10, 3 P.M.

The Compline Choir invites you to an afternoon of music celebrating peace, reconciliation, and concord in recognition of the 100th anniversary of Armistice Day and in support of the choir's upcoming pilgrimage to Canterbury and Salisbury cathedrals in August 2019. This salon-style concert will be performed in the home of Al and Janet Berg. Light refreshments will be served, and your donations will be gladly accepted! Seating is limited, so kindly RSVP to president@complinechoir.org with the number in your party no later than November 1. There will be two more opportunities to support the Compline Choir through musical gatherings in the spring; however, if you'd like to make a donation in lieu of attendance, please visit complinechoir.org/support to make an online contribution.

Nominations Period Open

Information about becoming a candidate for the Vestry and as Delegate to the Diocesan Convention will be available after morning services at the back of the Nave on Sunday October 7, 14, 21 & 28. A member of the Nominating Committee will be there to answer your questions and accept nominations for these important posts. For more information, contact John Selberg, jaselberg@aol.com, or Lynne Markova, lmarkova@comcast.net.

Justice Ministries Coordinating Team Update

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 10:10 A.M., Bloedel Hall

Members of the Justice Ministries Coordinating Team (JCMT) will give an update about the state of justice ministry at Saint Mark's. Come and learn more about how Saint Mark's is putting its faith into practice and how you can participate in and support this vibrant part of our collective life together.

Cathedral Book Group

SUNDAY, NOV. 11, 12:30 P.M., Cathedral House 209

A wonderful reading opportunity: in November we will discuss Educated, by Tara Westover, recommended by former President Obama. It is "a remarkable memoir of a young woman raised in a survivalist family in Idaho who strives for education while still showing great understanding and love for the world she leaves behind." And, plan ahead! On January 13, 2019 we discuss the recently published history of St. Mark's written by Alan Davidson, who will join us for the discussion. Copies available in the Cathedral Book Store.

Open Borders book signing and talk with parishioners Betsy Bell, Dick Carter and Elena Campbell

SUNDAY, NOV. 11, 12:15 P.M., Cathedral Shop

Saint Mark's parishioner Betsy Bell will talk about Open Borders, her memoir about her family's involvement in the anti-nuclear war Seattle-based movement known as Target Seattle (1982-1984.) Joining her will be Dick Carter, author of an essay included in the book; and Elena Campbell, professor of history at the University of Washington, who specializes in memory as an historical research resource.

Faith Action Network Annual Dinner

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 18, 5:30 P.M.

The Faith Action Network's annual fundraising dinner will be held on Sunday, November 18, from 5:30 to 7:30, at the Renton Pavilion Event Center. This interfaith gathering is a wonderful opportunity to meet other concerned Washingtonians as we gather to continue to move forward our dream for the common good. The Faith Action Network works to change the political landscape at the state level, representing all faith traditions in the struggle for inclusion, compassion, peace, and justice. We can make a difference! More detailed information at: fanwa.org. If you would like to be seated with other members of St. Mark's, simply mention that on your registration. Last year this event sold out a week in advance, so make sure to get registered! For further information contact Tom Sunderland at tsunderland@mail.com.

November 18: Friends Talking: Bishop Rickel and Dean Thomason

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 18, 10:10 A.M., Bloedel Hall

Bishop Rickel and Dean Thomason will host a conversation for the whole Saint Mark's community—children welcome!—about the role of a cathedral, the future of the Church, the Episcopal branch of the Jesus Movement and more.

Abbey Arts Concert: "CATHEDRALS XXIII"

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 7:30 PM, Cathedral Nave

A unique open-floor concert experience presented by Abbey Arts; featuring artists Leroy Bell, Clinton Fearon, Whitney Monge, Sarah Clarke and WANZ. Quiet picnics welcome. All ages, nonprofit. Interested in volunteering? Ushers receive one free ticket; contact Abbey Arts, juliann@fremontabbey.org for more information. Purchase tickets at fremontabbey.org.
